Book Fair

Hello Everyone,

The spring Scholastic Book Fair is being held this week at Murray Henderson Elementary School (1912 L. B. Landry Avenue in Algiers). You are welcome to visit the fair from 9:00 a.m. - 3 p.m. and purchase books any day this week.

Dr. Lisa Sullivan, Associate Professor of Education and 1991 alumna, Julie Nice, VP for Philanthropy & Planning, and I, along with members of the Literary Club, will be going to the Fair on Wednesday, 3/10/10, from 1:30 p.m. until 2:30 p.m. with some of Lisa's Elementary Education students, who will read to the children.

If you would like to make a donation to the book fair, please make checks out to OLHCC and write "Scholastic Book Fair" on the memo line. You can mail the checks to 4123 Woodland Drive, NOLA 70131 attn: Claudia Champagne.

Thank you for your support. This is such an important way for the College to serve the New Orleans community and to show our students what service learning means.

*Claudia M. Champagne, Ph.D.
Associate Professor of English
English Program Coordinator*

Career Day

Wednesday, April 14th ~ Noon to 2pm
Moreau Center

Please join us for the 2010 OLHCC Career Fair featuring employers from across the Gulf South as well as graduate & professional school recruiters.

If you would like for your company or organization to be represented at the Career Fair, please contact AK Lene', Director of Student Life at careerservices@olhcc.edu or (504)398-2110.

New Class Offering

A new philosophy class entitled "Philosophy & Cinema" will be offered this summer. It will focus on the meaning of spirituality as well as the connection between spirituality and major philosophical questions and themes. Since the movies are a high art form in this culture, the cinema becomes a rich source to teach, learn, and apply the spiritual and philosophical issues of life.

Mr. William Bischoff will be the instructor.

Please contact OLHCC at 504.394.7744 for more information on how you can enroll.

Thanks

The OLHCC community would like to thank Sister Judy Gomila, MSC and alumna of OLHCC, for a wonderful presentation at the Evening of Reflection.

Sister Helen Fontenot, MSC and alumna of OLHCC, would like to thank everyone for supporting the Friends of the Library Author Presentation/Book Signing by attending the event and/or buying books this past Sunday.

The Presentation/Book Signing, which featured Mrs. Leah Chase, was a great success with 110 guests in attendance. Mrs. Chase's presentation was inspiring and entertaining. Her donation of delicious food for the reception was enjoyed by all. These events are held to provide community involvement and promote literacy.

NOLA CureSearch Walk

Join us as we celebrate and honor children from the New Orleans area, as well as the entire state of Louisiana, who have been affected by childhood cancer. Think about the ways that childhood cancer has impacted those around you. By participating in this event, you are helping to raise money for childhood cancer research so kids with childhood cancer are able to reach their dreams.

This very special day will take place at Audubon Park and will include prizes, music, food, and fun activities for the entire family! Please encourage your members, friends and family to join us as we raise funds to reach the day when every child with cancer is guaranteed a cure! If you are unable to attend, please still register as a

"Virtual Walker" and fundraise within your area and community.

Register today and support childhood cancer research! Registering online allows you to create your own website page for the New Orleans walk. You can also track your personal and team fundraising progress.
